

JONATHAN HUNTER

FRONT END WEB DEVELOPER

PROFILE

A hard working, energetic individual who is ever eager to expand my knowledge and experiences through new and exciting challenges.

I can communicate confidently at all levels as well as dealing with difficult situations that require a natural problem solver in order to find a resolution.

My wide range of experiences in varying types of work, combined with extensive knowledge that I have obtained through self study means that I can adapt to new environments quickly and become an extremely effective member of the team.
